FOR WOMEN ONLY

JOSEPH F. FARISH,

SECRETARY MORTON PLEASED.

Head of Navy Witnesses Reproduction of Santiago Battle. Paul Morton, Secretary of the Navy, was both surprised and delighted last week when he witnessed the reproduction of the Battle of Santiago at the Naval Show on "It is a most remarkable production of naval warfare," said Secretary Morton naval warfare." said Secretary Morton after witnessing the mimic conflict. I believe every naval attache should witness it. It affords a rare opportunity for the public to witness a naval battle or a real-public to witness a naval battle or a reallatic reproduction of one."

The tremendous success achieved last week in giving the reproduction has prompted the management to continue the show. Schley's signal victory proved to be extremely popular with those who witnegsed the battle. The Concessions Depariment at the World's Fair was particularly pleased with the show, as it has drawn comment and reports from nearly all of the country's newspapers.

Twenty-eight miniature battleships, each perfect models of the big men-o-war of the United States Navy, constitute the World's Fair navy. All are felly equipped and ready for action. Twenty thousand shells are used in each performance. Torpedoes and mines are exploded, and the mimic battle becomes so realistic at times that spectators are compelled to arise and shout their approval.

It is not a panoramic effect, but each lit-refreshing it is to have the mouth eith perfectly clean! Sanitol Tooth or will do it. Druggists and dentists

EXPECTS MERCY FROM FOLK

Julius Lehmann Thinks That He Should Serve No Longer Term Than Other Boodlers.

"I hope and believe that after Folk I elected Governor, of which there is no Emil Hartmann and myself to two years. This is the substance of the words Julius Lehmann, of "birthday-party" fame, is the St. Louis Police Board.

Lehmann is now serving a seven-year term and Hartmann a five-year term for bribery in connection with the city light-bribery in connection with the City against pill.

"We have one kick against Folk," Lehmann is reported to have said, "and that is that he gave us a longer term than he did the other men now in the Penitentiary for bribery. The others are sentenced for but two years.

"We were the first to enter the Penitentiary, and if it had not been for us Folk could not have been nominated. We think he should now do something for us."

MORE MONEY FOR PHILIPPINE EXHIBIT

From Washington of $150,000 Additional Appropriation.

As Constructive Period Has Ended, Considerable Retrenchment Will Be Made in the Pay Rolls.

The Philippine reservation at the World's Fair was all agog yesterday over the arrival of Colonel Clarence R. Edwards of Washington from the War Department. He brought with him news of an additional appropriation of $150,000 Colonel Edwards is the official Santa Claus to the Filipinos in St. Louis. Whenever anything is wanted they call upon Two weeks ago the executive officers of the Philippine Exposition Board were a worried look. They had just checked over their accounts and found an immediate necessity for maintenance funds. Colone Edwards was appealed to. His arrival yesterday brought back the smiles to the officials when it became known that the appropriation had been

TO PRACTICE ECONOMY.

"The cost of maintenance in this exhibit," said Colonel Edwards, "is very grear, and economy will be practiced wherever it is possible. As the constructive period of the Fair is over now, there is no doubt that a considerable retrenchment will be made in the pay rolls."

As the result of a meeting of the Philippine Exposition Board Saturday fifty employes were dropped from the 550 workmen employed on the grounds. These represented the juries on awards, landscape gardeners and a few carpenters whose work has been completed.

The suggestion made by the Philippine Commissioners to charge a general admission of 50 cents or $1$ to the exhibit instead of the 25-cent admission fee now charged into each of the native villages will be one of the many matters put to Colone! Edwards for settlement while in St. Louis.

session at the Monticello Hotel yesterday. His address was responded to by Walter H. Booth of Scranton, Pa.

These addresses were followed by the reports of the various committees and remarks by members, after which communications were read before the convention. The convention will continue until next Saturday and arrangements have been made by the Security Mutual Company to have their agents see the Fair thoroughly during their week's stay in St. Louis.

The agents present at the convention were given the trip by the company by which they are employed in the way of a prize by the good work done by them last season.

WANT DETECTIVES AT CAFE LUZON

Colonel Edwards Brings News Philippine Board Determined to Prevent Repetition of Saturday Night's Riot.

ECONOMY TO BE PRACTICED. TO BAR DISORDERLY PERSONS.

Benjamin Jenkins, Supposed to Have Been Cut by Women, Is Pronounced Out of Danger.

In an attempt to rid the Philippine

Reservation at the World's Fair of undesirable persons, and avoid a repetition of Saturday's riot in the Cafe Luzon, a re quest was made yesterday by the Philippine Exposition Board to the tective department for two of Chief Desmond's men to be on duty there evenings.
While Ben Jenkins, proprietor of the cafe, who was seriously cut and wounded, supposedly by a party of women who had been drinking in the cafe, was pronounced out of danger yesterday, the executive officers of the Philippine Board declare they will use every means to avoid a recurrence of similar trouble by ejecting undesirable characters from the reservation.

Major Johnston, in command of the Filipino Scouts, emphatically denied the report that any of the Scouts were implicated or were even present when the riot oc-or were even present when the riot occurred. His statement is reiterated by Lieutenant Reid, who was at the cafe when the trouble began, and says that the half dozen Scouts who were there at that time were ordered back to camp.

No evidence was secured by detectives
working on the case against any members of the Fllipino Constabulary, who it was thought at first might have had a hand in the trouble.

Detectives who are investigating the case now incline to the belief that it was Dolly Carter, one of the six women arrested, who did the cutting. All of the women are being held at the Clayton jail pending an investigation.

Doctor Williamson of the Philippine hospital stated last evening that Jenkins's condition was much improved yesterday,
and there was possibility of his recovery.
Watchman Wilkins, who was also badly cut, was reported much improved.
Colonel C. B. Edwards of Washington cut, was reported much improved.
Colonel C. R. Edwards of Washington, who came on yesterday to make a general inspection of the Filipino exhibit, said that if it wers found that either the members of the Scouts or Constabulary had taken a hand in the riot, they would be promptly punished for disorderly conduct.

Detectives working on the case yester-day found two penknives covered with blood lying in the grass near the guard-house. It is believed the women who did the cutting threw them away after the trouble.

MRS. MARSHALL'S CHILDREN PAY TRIBUTE TO HER.

Present Large Floral Offering at the Memorial Service Held at the Salvation Army Barracks.

Perhaps the most eloquent tribute which has been paid to the memory of Lieuten ant Colonel Lucinda Marshall of the Sal vation Army, who died last Wednesday was the silent one paid to her by her chil-dren at the memorial service held last night in the Salvation Army headquarters at No. 1411 Franklin avenue.

The tribute was in the form of a large floral heart, with the words "Our Mother" worked in white lilles in the center. There were many other floral offerings as each of the army corps in St. Louis sent one, as did the Men's Industrial Home of St. Louis. The exercises were in charge of Colone T. W. Scott of New York, who made the memorial address.

Other addresses were made by various officers of the Salyation Army. Mrs. Marshall's husband, Colonel Marshall, is still on the way from London, and will not arrive in St. Louls until the latter part of this week.

Upon his arrival the Salvation Army will hold a sympathy meeting with him over his wife's death.

SOULARD MARKET FOR BATHHOUSE

Old Building in South St. Louis to Be Remodeled Into a Free Public Natatorium.

A part of the old Soulard market building, in South St. Louis, is to be used for free public bathhouse. Building Commissioner Heimburger has done much toward preparing the plans for remodeling the old market-house, and the Civic Improvement League is making every effort to have the chan soon as practicable. The plans are now in charge of Mr. Heimburger's chief draftsman, C. S. Bainum. The Free Bath Commission, Mayor Wells appointed some days ago, has been making extended investigations as to the most desirable locations for baths, and one of the places selected is the old market house, which has been abandoned. Rough plans were prepared by the commission showing how this building could be remodeled and these were turned over to the Building Commissioner, who is now working on the plans and specifications. These will be turned over to the Board of Public Improvements and a contract for remodeling will soon be let.

The league's committee who are members of the free bath commission, are as follows: Victor Hugo, chairman; Dwight F. Davis, Hugh McKittrick, E. J. Russell and Gerard Swope. Mayor Wells appointed some days ago,
